

Hearing and Doing

Building your house upon the Rock.

Sermon Questions

1. At the end of Jesus' sermon, he stresses hearing and _____ what he says.
2. Confessing Jesus as Lord necessarily includes obedience. (Yes/No)
3. The more we understand the lordship of Christ, the more we understand our need to _____.
4. List at least two passages that demonstrate obedience to Jesus is necessary:

5. We are justified before God by our obedience. (Yes/No)
6. What's the difference between the two houses Jesus mentions: _____
7. List one example of how a house without a foundation "shifts" by the winds of popular fashion:

8. The great ruin of the house ultimately refers to the final judgment. (Yes/No)
9. The house with the foundation on the rock is likely a reference to _____.
10. While the houses look the same, _____ reveals the true nature of the foundation.
11. Many believe in Jesus' power to save but ignore his authority to judge. (Yes/No)
12. Whether a person in disobedience, hypocrisy, or immaturity, the answer is to see that Jesus Christ is _____.

Discussion/Meditation Questions

1. Can you make a list of what faithfulness looks like in your life? Consider your private life, your role in the home, in the church, and in society. If you need help, seek out a mature believer for guidance.

2. Given your answer above, how can you make adjustments this week to be doing what God requires of you?

3. To set our hearts in order, we must do the things listed above out of devotion for Christ. Take a blank sheet of paper and make a list of what makes Christ so worthy to be worshiped and obeyed.

4. How would you explain to someone new to the faith that obedience is necessary but we are forgiven and justified before God by faith alone in Christ's finished work alone?