Discussion/Meditation Questions

1. What area of human experience do you find it hard to believe God is in total and meticulous control? Review the passages listed in question 5 above. Is there any area over which God is not sovereign?

2. Why is it so important to remember God's attributes of infinite wisdom and love when we consider God's total control over all things? What are the consequences if God is not all-loving and all-wise? In what ways are these attributes practical in our lives?

3. How are people held responsible if God's plan has already been determined? Romans 9:14 & 19 raise common questions to biblical teaching. How would you answer this question? Ask an elder or more learned believer if you aren't sure.

4. What was your most significant take-away from this passage and sermon? Share this with another brother or sister in the fellowship.
